1. High Rocks is a leadership program which offers a variety of opportunities for teenage girls. Outdoor adventures, academic support, planning for life after high school, and creating service projects are all parts of the High Rocks experience. How do you think this girl would benefit from coming to High Rocks?

2. High Rocks girls come from all walks of life and thrive on being part of a diverse group. We want a variety of qualities and personalities to create a balanced group of girls. What are three important qualities or talents she would bring to the High Rocks group?

3. What sets her apart from other girls her age? What is special or unique about her?

4. How does she react to challenging situations or stress? Give an example if possible.
